HEROES: STORIES OF RESCUE FROM GENOCIDE

Over 250 high school students, from Baldwin, Centereach and East Hampton, and community college classes, will be present to hear about the heroes who risked their lives and the safety of their families to become rescuers and resisters. Their stories will inspire this generation to strive to reject prejudice and have the resolve to protect those who would be its victims.

Speakers will include:

- Frank Oliveri, a scholar on the Italians who resisted the Nazis and protected Jews from the Holocaust;
- Eugenie Mukeshimana, a survivor of the Rwandan genocide; and
- Mordechai Miller, a survivor of the Holocaust.

Sponsored by the Suffolk Center on the Holocaust, Diversity and Human Understanding, Inc, this event will take place in the Shea Theatre on the Ammerman Campus of Suffolk County Community College in Selden.

The program will take place on April 3 and run from 9:30 am to 1 :45 pm. (The 9:30 to 10:45 segment will be repeated at 11 am.)
